

• SATRYNA MEZCAL CENIZO •

The rare agave Cenizo grows wild on the steep hillsides of Durango, Northern Mexico for 15 long years, before it is ready for harvesting. We use the traditional artisanal process of an earthen pit for cooking the agave, a tahona for milling, with fermentation using natural yeast and distillation in small batches using wooden stills. This handcrafted mezcal produces flavors that are exotically intense with rich earthy tones and a hint of smoke. Whether sipped neat or mixed in cocktails, Cenizo Mezcal is a spirit that celebrates tradition and offers a taste of the rich culture and heritage of Mexico. Enjoy it slowly to fully appreciate its complexity and the story it tells with every sip.

• SATRYNA MEZCAL MEXICANO •

The rare agave Mexicano grows wild in the renowned region of Oaxaca, Mexico for 10 long years, before it is ready for harvesting. Mexicano agave is revered for its large size, relative scarcity, vivid green hue, and kaleidoscopic spray of rigid, tightly-spaced leaves. We use the traditional artisanal process of an earthen pit for cooking the agave, a tahona for milling, natural yeast fermentation and distillation in small batches using wooden stills. Mexicano Mezcal is a true expression of artisanal craftsmanship. Its bold smokiness, balanced sweetness, and herbal undertones create a captivating and well-rounded experience. Whether sipped neat or mixed in cocktails, Mexicano Mezcal is a spirit that celebrates tradition and offers a taste of the rich culture and heritage of Mexico. Enjoy it slowly to fully appreciate its complexity and the story it tells with every sip.
